大 唐 的 记 忆

Memory of the Great Tang Dynasty

Thousands of years of rhymes Thousands of years of feeling lost and confused Thousands of years of wandering up and down Thousands of years of empty sighs

A new rain has fallen in the city I have left old friends behind As I walk down the ancient road singing I search for the dreams of old that I left behind during the Tang Dynasty

A new rain has fallen in the city
I am returning to my old friends
The ancient capital of Chang'an is once again in front of me
Dafa is bringing salvation to people of the Tang Dynasty
